President's Letter

This year's Halloween Party almost became a Hurricane Party, thankfully the weather got better by Saturday evening and we had a great turn out. We brought back the raffle drawing for prizes thanks to Nickie and Jackie, one of my favorite prizes were sunset photos of our lake donated by Lily Worcester. The Jack-o-lanterns were very creative and the costumes were awesome. Thanks to DJ John and all the volunteers for set up and decorating we had a successful event.

Looking for an old fashioned Christmas Party? Come to our IOP Party we will start with decorating the Pavilion to await Santa's arrival at 1:00 pm. Volunteer at this or any event and take $5 off your annual membership for 2013.

The 1st Annual Boat Parade is coming to Lake Mary Jane this December, you can participate or come down to the association dock to view it.

Next year's social occasions are being discussed at the board meetings such as a chili cook off and a family camp-out. Come to a board meeting or let someone on the board know what would interest you in the upcoming year.

See you in the IOP,

Terry Aikens

HISTORY OF THE ISLE OF PINES

THE 24th ANNUAL RAJUN CAJUN CRAWFISH FESTIVAL

The Isle Of Pine's Property Owners Association annual fundraiser. This is a traditional Louisiana crawfish festival complete with the crawfish tables, 2800-lbs. of red claw Louisiana crawfish, Cajun/Zydeco music and traditional Cajun foods. The credit for this successful fundraiser is due to the volunteers and many years of practice. Pre-sale tickets for the April 20, 2013 are offered to our neighborhood at the annual membership drive in January. Once they go on sale the remaining tickets have been sold out in as little as 2 hours. For more information and to see slide show of previous Rajun Cajun's visit:

Rick and Lisa Boyd started The Crawfish Company of Central Fla, Inc. in 2002 they have catered multiple seafood events. In 2007 they established The Harp & Celt Irish Pub in downtown Orlando.

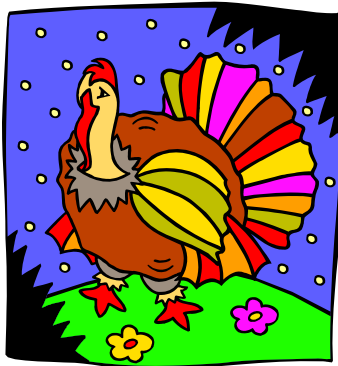

Rick is the original owner of his Isle of Pines home, which he purchased in 1988. He retired from a career as an air traffic controller from Delta Airlines. He has served multiple terms as Vice President and President of the Isle of Pines Association and has been an active volunteer for many years.
