Old Business:

- Labor Day – Raffles are coming in. SELL TICKETS. Sell gun raffle tickets
- There was an overpay in insurance coverage. We should be receiving a refund of $576.45.
- Newsletter is generating almost enough income from advertisers (without becoming junk mail) to pay for itself. The only advertiser who has not paid is EvenPro after several requests via email and phone conversations. Chrissy will reach out.
- Scouts did a great job on the picnic tables
- 4th July – discussions of how to handle the collection of firework donations going forward. Sparked by Jesse's recent post collecting fireworks for July 2026.
 1. "Open Book" for IOPPOA board to confirm and review donation amounts and how they are spent.
 2. Jesse possibly taking over all the responsibilities associated with the fireworks portion of the 4th of July.

Executive board will discuss and create a plan of action for 2025-2026 donations.

- Pia offered to donate another little library at the park ~ at children's height. She was not at the meeting. Rick motioned to get another little library if the IOPPOA doesn't have to pay for it. Justin 2nd with all in favor.
- Pickle ball – someone offered to donate adding onto the existing basketball court to create a pickleball court. No further information was available. Issue tabled.
- Solar lights – details are still being worked out. Tabled
- Boat Rack – 7 slots are open. Nikki R mentioned something about a sign. Rental info will display the IOPPOA treasurer email and no phone number. Tabled

Boat Parade (non-IOPPOA sponsored event) – 12/19/2025 details to follow

TERRIBLE thunderstorm rushed the meeting along.
